

Project Profile

Silo Support Structure

Central Canada

This structure, located on the shore of the St-Lawrence river, is a 1000 ton silo support structure which was elevated to accommodate the drive through of semi tankers.

The work also included provisions for pipe support and bridge, and access stairs complete with platforms and handrails.

Services: Provided engineering tender drawings as well as site supervision during construction.

